Mock Parliament 6th April 2024

REPORT

The Department of Political Science, Unity College organised Mock Parliament on 6th April, 2024 at Seminar Hall with the sole purpose to give practical exposure to students about parliamentary proceedings and help them learn, know, understand and experience roles and responsibilities of public representatives. The programme started with an invocation prayer by Khreniuo B.A 4th Semester, a keynote address by host Likivi Sumi of M.A 2nd Semester, followed by the Parliamentary Session. The key bill debated in the session was "Should AFSPA be repealed in Nagaland".

The session was presided over by the Speaker of the House where she declared the debate open for the Ruling and the Opposition party. After the debate, Voting line was open to all the members of the house to cast their Vote. The bill was declared as Lapse by the President as majority voted for Against repeal of the Act. The main purpose of the session was to enriched the students an insight about the working of the Parliament, to make students aware of the various problems of the society and to form their own opinion

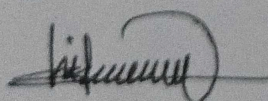

The event gave students with a platform to engage in simulated parliamentary proceedings, fostering a better understanding of legislative processes and encouraging active participation in democratic discourse. As a gesture to encourage the participants, gift hamper and certificate of participation was handed to all participants of the parliamentary debate. The programme ended with a note of thanks from Mrs I Asenla Jamir, Head, Department of Political Science. All together 150 students and 10 faculty participated in the programme
